Dear Sridhar Reddy,

We, DELLSOFT Technologies Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi are pleased to announce that we are planning to set up "FREE OF COST" Global Open Online Conference System (GOOCS) www.dellsoft.in/goocs . The idea of setting up the GOOCS is to provide a forum for Scientists, Scholars, Research Engineers, Academicians and researchers from the academia and industry all around the globe to interact, present ongoing research activities, do seminars and conferences. GOOCS will utilize a variety of methods for interaction, including conferences, papers, presentations, panel discussions, open forums, audio and video webcasts, Q&A etc.

The system provides platform assistance to Institutions, scientists, scholars, research engineers, academicians and researchers for organizing online conferences & workshops at State, National and International levels in various fields like Engineering, Science & Technology, Biotechnology related subjects, Medicine and other. Further, the system intends to promote high standards in academia by way of extending facilities to teachers, researchers and students, by providing a forum for sharing their knowledge, experiences and research findings.

We, on behalf of GOOCS invite you to join as Technical Committee Member (TCM) for the development of Scientists, Scholars, Research Engineers, Academicians and researchers from the academia and industry all around the globe in your respective fields and give your contribution towards betterment and encouragement of our researchers. To know more about GOOCS please visit www.dellsoft.in/goocs
